2023 ADMISSION PLAN FOR UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAMS

I. GENERAL INFORMATION

1. TRAINING INSTITUTION:

Name of the training institution: DIPLOMATIC ACADEMY OF VIETNAM

Mission: With over 64 years of steadfast development tradition, the Diplomatic Academy of Vietnam (DAV) stands as a leading institution nationwide, tasked with training high-quality human resources, government officers, and conducting strategic research as well as in-depth studies to serve the comprehensive international integration and foreign affairs of the country.

(1) The training of high-quality human resources and government officers: DAV has consistently been at the forefront of innovation in goals, methods, and training content aligned with the strategic direction set by the Party and the State. By 2023, the Academy has provided education for 49 regular undergraduate courses, 23 International Relations Master's courses, 11 International Law Master's courses, 09 International Economics Master's courses, 01 International Communication Master's course, 13 International Relations Doctoral courses, and 05 International Law Doctoral courses. The Academy has signed cooperative training programs for International Relations Master's with Lyon III University (France); Bachelor's in International Relations, Communications, Political Science with Victoria University of Wellington (New Zealand); Bachelor's in English Language with Flinders University (Australia); Bachelor's in International Business, Communications with Monash University (Australia), and Bachelor's in Communications with Macquarie University (Australia). The Academy is currently implementing student exchange programs with Sungshin University (South Korea), Laval University (Canada), Chulalongkorn University (Thailand), University of New South Wales (Australia),

Monash University (Australia), Gunma University (Japan), Wakayama University (Japan), MGIMO University (Russia), and Fulbright University (Vietnam).

Lecturers and researchers of the Academy are also diplomats with extensive practical experience. Many lecturers have previously worked at Vietnam's diplomatic missions in various countries and international organizations. The majority of the Academy's faculty members have received undergraduate and postgraduate training at leading universities worldwide and are capable of directly teaching specialized courses in English, Korean, Japanese, French, and Chinese. Additionally, the Academy maintains a network of high-level experts, both domestic and international, who regularly conduct lectures and discussions on specialized topics with students. Furthermore, the Academy is tasked by the State with training and fostering personnel, civil servants, and officials in the diplomatic sector, as well as those engaged in foreign affairs in various Ministries, Departments, and localities across the country.

The Diplomatic Academy has received the Certificate of Quality Accreditation for Educational Institutions No. 69/QD-KDCL dated March 12, 2020, issued by the Education Quality Accreditation Center of the Hanoi National University in accordance with Regulation No. 12/2017/TT-BGDĐT dated May 19, 2017, by the Ministry of Education & Training. The Diplomatic Academy is among the few universities that have obtained the Certificate of Program Accreditation according to Decision No. 144-148/QD-KDCL dated June 8, 2021, from the Education Quality Accreditation Center of the Association of Universities and Colleges of Vietnam for all accredited programs, including International Relations, International Law, International Economics, English Language, and International Communication.

(2) Strategic research and in-depth studies to serve comprehensive international integration and foreign affairs of the country: The Diplomatic Academy is a core unit responsible for research and strategic forecasting at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. It functions in scientific research on International Relations and manages the scientific research program of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. To date, the Academy has completed hundreds of the state, ministry, and institutional-level scientific projects; successfully organized numerous domestic and international seminars. The Academy is a member of various research institutions such as the ASEAN-ISIS Institute for Strategic and International Studies, the Asia-Pacific Security Cooperation Council (CSCAP), the Vietnam Coordinator in the Conflict Studies Network in Southeast Asia; maintaining cooperation with over 80 foreign research institutes and universities; and having relationships with various foreign embassies and international organizations in Hanoi.

As a leading higher education institution in Vietnam for research and education in International Relations, DAV plays a crucial advisory role for the leadership of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in formulating and implementing the foreign policies of the Party and the State.

DAV plays an active role in the content committees of international conferences held in Vietnam, such as the Francophone Summit, APEC Summit, ASEAN Summit, and ASEM Summit.

Since 1994, DAV has consistently earned recognition from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs as an exemplary institution and has received a number of State awards, notably the First-class Labor Order in 1994, Third-class Independence Order in 1999, Second-class Independence Order in 2004, Ho Chi Minh Order in 2009, and First-class Independence Order 2019. Moreover, DAV has received numerous Certificates of Honor and Flags of Merit from the Minister of Foreign Affairs, various Ministries, Departments, Hanoi City, and high-level organizations of the Party (CPV) and the Youth Union.

II.ADMISSION FOR FULL-TIME UNDERARADUATE TRAINING

1. ADMISSION ELIGIBILITY/TARGET

- All candidates, up to the specified time of admission, must have graduated from high school, including candidates who have graduated from high school in both Vietnam and abroad, and meet the conditions specified in the Admissions Plan for the year 2023 of the Academy.

- Having sufficient health to study under the current regulations, without violating the law.

2. ADMISSION AREA: the admission process is open to candidates nationwide.

3. ADMISSION CODES

The Diplomatic Academy of Vietnam will admit students to its regular undergraduate program in 2023 through the following admission methods:

- Direct admission and priority admission as per the regulations of the Ministry of Education and Training -Admission method code 301 (item 8.1, Part II of the Admission Plan).

- Early admission based on high school academic results - Admission method code 200 (item 8.2, Part II of the Admission Plan).

- Early admission based on interview results - Admission method code 412 (item 8.3, Part II of the Admission Plan).

- Admission based on the results of the High School Graduation Examination in 2023 - Admission method code 100 (item 8.4, Part II of the Admissions Plan).

4. ADMISSION CRITERIA

- Each admission method has its own quota. In the event that one admission method does not fill its quota, the remaining slots will be transferred to other methods. Candidates can apply for admission through different methods if they meet all the specified criteria.

- Candidates are allowed to register without limitation on preferences and must arrange their preferences in order of priority from high to low (Preference 1 is the highest preference)

- Candidates are assessed equally based on the evaluation scores, without distinguishing the order of registered preferences, except for cases where candidates have the same admission scores at the bottom of the list, in which case the Academy uses additional criteria for admission. The admission scores are rounded to two decimal places. Candidates can only be admitted to the highest-preference choice possible in the list of registered preferences.

- Based on the admission quotas and the number of successful candidates in the early admission round with preferences for studying at the Academy or candidates admitted and confirmed enrollment in the fields, the Diplomatic Academy of Vietnam will review and decide on additional admission rounds.

5. ACADEMY'S POLICY ON ENCOURAGEMENT POINTS

5.1. Encouragement points under the regulations of the Academy

- Teaching staff:

➤ The majority of the lecturers were trained at leading universities worldwide. Additionally, they include diplomats with extensive practical experience in the field of foreign affairs and international integration.

The team of academic advisors and dedicated tutors enthusiastically provide guidance and address students' inquiries about their studies as well as career orientation.

- The facilities supporting the training activities include lecture halls, multipurpose classrooms, and multimedia rooms equipped with modern equipment. The electronic library is also utilized, providing access to educational resources from both domestic and international sources.

- Learning Support Programs:

- Learning support activities for students are professionally organized and diverse, including specialized seminars with experts and renowned speakers, rich in experience. Practical excursions, domestic and international exchanges, and more are also part of the program.
- Research Activities: Students actively participate in scientific research activities, join scientific research clubs, support research projects of the East Sea Institute and the Institute of Strategic Studies at the Diplomatic Academy. They attend domestic and international scientific conferences, and participate in national and international competitions to stimulate potential in research and learning.
- International Cooperation Activities: Students have the opportunity to participate in activities supporting major international conferences held in Vietnam, engage in academic exchanges, and take part in student exchange programs under agreements between the Diplomatic Academy and partner universities abroad.

- The Foreign Language study at the Academy:

- Foreign Language 1: This is a compulsory course, and students can choose one of the following languages: English, Korean, Japanese, French, or Chinese. They are placed into classes based on their proficiency level (if the class size requirements are met).
- Foreign Language 2: This is an elective course (with grades counted in the academic performance), and students can choose one of the following languages: English, German, Korean, Russian, Japanese, French, Spanish, or Chinese. They are placed into classes based on their proficiency level (if the class size requirements are met). In the case where students do not wish to/are unable to meet the requirements for Foreign Language 2, they are required to take additional hours of Foreign Language 1.
- For the English Language major: Students study Foreign Language 1 in English, and Foreign Language 2 (compulsory) is another foreign language. For the Asian-Pacific Studies major, students study Foreign Language 1 corresponding to their chosen specialization (English, Korean, Japanese, or Chinese).
- For the Asian-Pacific Studies and International Trade Law majors: Students register for Foreign Language 2 of their choice or take additional hours of Foreign Language 1 with corresponding duration. They are placed into classes based on their proficiency level (if the class size requirements are met) and pay tuition fees as stipulated by the Academy.

- Double/dual Degree Program: Students can enroll in a second-degree program if they wish to and meet the academic requirements. Upon graduation, students are awarded two diplomas and two transcripts for the two majors.

- Career Guidance/Internship Program: Students have the opportunity to receive career guidance directly from Vietnam's Ambassadors starting from the first year through participation in the Ambassador's Personal Development Journey program. From the second year onward, students are introduced to internships at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Ministry of Industry and Trade, Foreign Affairs Departments, various organizations, businesses, corporations, press agencies, embassies, and international organizations in Vietnam. They are prioritized for opportunities that align with their field of study. Outstanding graduates have the chance to be recruited as lecturers or researchers at the Academy, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Central and local government agencies.

- Student Exchange Program: Students have opportunities to participate in semester and short-term student exchange programs at partner universities of the Academy, such as Sungshin University (South Korea), Gunma University (Japan), Wakayama University (Japan), Laval University (Canada), Chulalongkorn University (Thailand), University of New South Wales (Australia), Monash University (Australia), MGIMO University (Russia), Fulbright University Vietnam, and more,...

- Employment Opportunities: After graduation, students will have opportunities to work in government ministries, departments, and agencies; international organizations; foreign diplomatic missions in Vietnam; press and media agencies; domestic and international enterprises; and more,...

- In an effort to foster academic excellence and ensure equal access to higher education for students from economically disadvantaged backgrounds, the Academy has implemented a range of scholarships and financial support programs. As of the 2022–2023 academic year, the following scholarship programs have been made available:

(i) Scholarships for Academic Excellence and Training: awarded to students with good academic performance, with a minimum Grade Point Average (GPA) of B or higher, given each semester with varying levels for students with Excellent, Good, and Fair GPAs. The number of scholarships is specifically determined each year based on students' academic and training achievements, as reviewed and decided by the Academy's Board of Awards.

(ii) Nguyen Co Thach Scholarship: a scholarship program for talented students with outstanding academic achievements, extracurricular activities, and leadership qualities, valued from 10,000,000 VND to 30,000,000 VND per scholarship.

(iii) Dream fulfilling Scholarship: for students from the second year onwards, especially those facing difficult circumstances, who strive for academic excellence. Each scholarship is valued at 5,000,000 - 10,000,000 VND per scholarship. The number of scholarships awarded in the 2022 - 2023 academic year are 31.

(iv) Vietnam - China Friendship Scholarship: awarded to students studying Chinese language at the Academy with outstanding academic achievements or students who have overcome difficulties and excelled in their studies, valued at 10,000,000 VND per scholarship. The number and value of scholarships may increase in subsequent years.

(v) KOCHAM Scholarship (Korean Chamber of Commerce and Industry in Vietnam): awarded to students facing difficult circumstances and achieving a grade of Good or above, valued at 10,000,000 VND per scholarship.

(vi) Talent Development Scholarship sponsored by the State Capital Investment and Business Corporation (SCIC): awarded to fourth-year students with excellent academic performance and active participation in extracurricular activities, with a scholarship value of 10,000,000 VND per scholarship.

(vii) “Inspiring Hope” Scholarship (PVcomBank): In the academic year 2021–2022, 08 full scholarships (up to VND 20,000,000 per year each, covering tuition fees and living expenses) were awarded to newly admitted students with outstanding academic potential from particularly disadvantaged backgrounds.

(viii) Vingroup Scholarship (Thien Tam Foundation): 09 scholarships, each covering 50% of one academic year’s tuition fee, were awarded to students with strong academic performance who, together with their families, face special difficulties.

* Scholarships (v), (vi), (vii), and (viii): the scholarship program may vary depending on the partner’s policy.

In addition to the annual scholarship and financial support programs, newly admitted students have the opportunity to receive the following scholarships upon admission and enrollment at the Diplomatic Academy of Vietnam:

(ix) Scholarship for the Academy’s Valedictorians: To honor the valedictorians of the Academy, students with the highest admission scores under the admission methods specified in Sections 8.1, 8.2, and 8.4, Part II of the Admissions Plan for each training program will be awarded a scholarship worth VND 5,000,000 each. The Academy will grant this scholarship immediately after the students complete their enrollment procedures.

(x) For a Better Future Scholarship: To encourage and support newly admitted students from disadvantaged backgrounds who have passed the Academy’s admission process (under the admission methods specified in Sections 8.1, 8.2, and 8.4, Part II of the Admissions Scheme), the Diplomatic Academy of Vietnam will award 20 scholarships, each covering 80% of the tuition fee for the first academic year. After admission, students may apply following the Academy’s instructions to be considered for this scholarship.

15. ORGANIZING TRAINING PROGRAMS TO IMPROVE KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS AND EXPERTISE ON FOREIGN AFFAIRS; FOREIGN LANGUAGES & INTERPRETING SKILLS

The Foreign Service Center (FOSET), a unit under the Diplomatic Academy, is responsible for training and developing knowledge, skills, and expertise in foreign affairs, foreign languages, and interpreting skills for the officials and staff of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, officials and staff engaged in foreign affairs within various ministries, sectors, and localities. Additionally, it provides training and development services to organizations and individuals in accordance with legal regulations.

Annually, FOSET organizes training courses and development programs for officials and staff of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, as well as those from various ministries, sectors, and localities. The center implements projects approved by the Prime Minister to enhance knowledge and skills among officials and staff engaged in international integration process. These projects play a crucial role in the training and development of human resources involved in international integration activities across ministries, sectors, and localities.

In addition, the center implements various training and development programs on English, French, Chinese, Korean, and Japanese (at basic, advanced, specialized levels), translation & interpretation programs, as well as skills training programs such as negotiation, presentation, argumentation, leadership & management skills. These programs are designed to meet the diverse needs of the society.
